

Catechists and PREP Volunteers Needed

Ten Reasons to Teach

1. I am sent (Lk 10:1).
2. I strive to do as Jesus did (Jn 13:12-15).
3. It is my vocation as a layperson (Catechism of Catholic Church 900).
4. It is my share in the prophetic mission of Christ and the evangelizing mission of the church (National Catechetical Directory)
5. I find no greater joy than sharing “good news” with my family and friends in Christ.
6. I seek to grow in holiness and community as the Spirit of the Lord forms me in ministry.
7. I am in solidarity with those who hunger and thirst for justice and healing.
8. I have a share in the teaching charism of the magisterium.
9. For me, it is the ideal expression of the communal life of the Church (Acts 2:42-47).
10. My name is written in heaven with all those who have gone before me as friends, mentors and catechists (Lk 10:20).
